

Post Experience Certificate in

Diabetes Care: A Multi-professional Approach

“A clinically orientated multi-disciplinary short course.”

- Designed to equip Health Care Professionals with the in-depth knowledge and understanding required to deliver the best care to patients with Diabetes.
- Provides a detailed understanding of the diagnosis, pathophysiology, pharmacology, management and prognosis of diabetes.
- Accredited by Glasgow Caledonian University at Masters level (20 CAT points)
- Approval from British Dietetic Association and The Society of Chiropractors and Podiatrists

Course includes

- Nature and aetiology of diabetes
- Analytical investigations, diagnosis and monitoring
- Retinopathy
- Diet and lifestyle modifications
- The diabetic foot
- Pharmacology of insulin and OHAs
- Diabetes and sexual health
- Nephropathy
- Organisation and delivery of health care services

Location

GCU London, 40 Fashion Street, London E1 6PX

Dates of course

30th August - 1st September and 6th - 8th September 2011

Cost of course

£1650

Includes all detailed lecturer workshop material, certification and course dinner

Contact

Jane Nally

T: +44 (0) 141 331 8523

E: J.E.Nally@gcu.ac.uk

or visit

www.gculondon.ac.uk

GCU London is a graduate university campus of Glasgow Caledonian University, a registered Scottish charity, number SC021474