

Understanding Fire Engineering Design Event

Contact:

For more information contact Audrey Meikle telephone +44 (0)141 331 8458 email Audrey.Meikle@gcu.ac.uk or visit www.gculondon.ac.uk

All CPD events are available for delivery as a Breakfast seminar and an afternoon half day seminar. Full day seminars on any subject would also be available to include practical case studies and provision of advice on delegates specific questions.

Half Day Afternoon

(12.30pm – 4.30pm) £125.00 + VAT

Location GCU London

Date 9th November 2011

Breakfast Seminar

(8.30am – 10.30am, Q&A session

10.00-10.30am) £75.00 + VAT

Date 10th November 2011

To Register contact audrey.meikle@gcu.ac.uk

Developed particularly for Building Control Authorities, Approved Inspectors, Architects and Designers, NHS and Healthcare, Fire and Rescue Services, Insurers and Risk Assessors.

Description

This seminar seeks to assist those responsible for the approval of fire engineered strategies and performance solutions. This seminar will examine the principals of fire engineering outlined in BS9999 and BS7974.

Content

- Basic fire dynamics
- First principles of design
- Performance solutions and typical designs
- Sustainable design within fire engineering
- Validation and verification
- Practical design exercise

GCU London Campus

1. Aldgate Underground
2. Aldgate East Underground
3. Whitechapel Art Gallery
4. Christ Church Spitalfield
5. Old Spitalfield Market
6. Liverpool Street Station

From Liverpool Street Station - Turn left and walk down Bishopsgate, take first right into Brushfield Street, go right at the end of the road and walk down Commercial Street, Fashion Street is on your first left.
Visit: www.gculondon.ac.uk/aboutgculondon/howtofindus

GCU London, 40 Fashion Street, London E1 6PX

GCU London is a graduate university college of Glasgow Caledonian University, a registered Scottish charity, number SC021474