GCU LONDON

GCU London is a postgraduate university campus of Glasgow Caledonian University (GCU), located in an ultra-modern environment in the heart of London. Situated in Spitalfields, one of London's most attractive locations, GCU London is in proximity to the capitals globally recognised financial and fashion industries.

The campus offers a diverse and enriching environment which underpinned by a vibrant and modern venue with lecture rooms and breakout space.

With its unique design and room layout flexibility, GCU London caters for a wide variety of corporate and private events, from high profile conferences to intimate professional dinners and receptions.

OUR FACILITIES

GCU London is ideally situated and is a short walk from Liverpool Street Station.

The surrounding area is home to the historic Old Spitalfields Market, a top London attraction for Londoners and tourists alike.

The campus interior is steeped in history, and the street itself pays homage to the starring role east London once played in the UK textile industry. The striking campus provides an extremely stylish and modern space with lecture rooms, breakout study areas and lounges for a range of events.

The venue is ideal for conferences, professional development courses exhibitions, award ceremonies and guest lectures. To make your event as successful, where possible we will encourage you to theme your events with your corporate identity or brand.

Our dedicated events team will work with you on your specific requirements. GCU London is an ideal venue for both private and public sector events and conferences throughout the year particularly from May - September.
